10 THE CLERK: All rise.

11 The United States District Court for the Western 12 District of New York is now in session. The Honorable John 13 Sinatra presiding.

14 THE COURT: Please be seated.

15 THE CLERK: Court calls case number 19-CR-227, United 16 States versus Peter Gerace. This is the date set for oral 17 argument.

18 Counsel, please state your appearances.

19 MR. TRIPI: Joseph Tripi and Brendan Cullinane for the 20 United States.

21 Good morning, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Good morning.

23 MR. DANIELS: Joel Daniels for Mr. Gerace.

24 THE COURT: Good morning, Counsel. Good morning,
25 Mr. Gerace.

THE DEFENDANT: Good morning.

1           THE COURT: We're here today on Mr. Gerace's motion to 2 amend a condition of his pretrial release. My review is de novo
3 and we're proceeding today in person because I deem this
4 proceeding essential under Chief Judge Geraci's February 24
5 general order.

6           I studied the papers, spent a lot of time thinking
7 about them. So I'm more interested in having a back-and-forth
8 conversation with counsel rather than hearing a soup-to-nuts
9 presentation from either side.

10           So with that in mind, is there anything we need to 11 talk about before we get started with some questions from me?

12           MR. TRIPI: No, Judge.

13           MR. DANIELS: I don't believe that would be helpful,
14 Judge. We've tried, but haven't been successful with it.

15           THE COURT: Okay. Well, we'll see what we can do
16 here. If I miss something and you really need to, you know, sum 17 it up at the end, please do that.

18           But I think I'm going to cover everything that you
19 want covered here. So let me start with, who is talking,
20 Mr. Tripi, on your side today?

21           MR. TRIPI: Yes, Judge.

22           THE COURT: What's the current risk of danger here if 23 Mr. Gerace were allowed to work at Pharaoh's for two or three 24 hours every morning, early, when no one else is there?

25           MR. TRIPI: I think that's the key part, Judge, is I

1 don't know if we can assure that no one else is going to be 2 there.

3 One thing we learned through time on this job is where 4 there is a will, there is a way. And here, Pharaoh's is 5 essentially the home base for the bulk of Mr. Gerace's criminal
6 activity.

7 And he's charged in certain counts with engaging in 8 that conduct with other people, frankly, who are employed at 9 Pharaoh's and who attend Pharaoh's.

10 So any conditions that allow him to go to that place
11 provides him with opportunities to consult with people that he's 12 engaged in this conduct with.

13 The maintaining of the drug premises count charges
14 Section 2, liability. The sex trafficking count is a
15 conspiracy. Obviously, by definition, there is an agreement
16 with at least one other person there.

17 As I indicated in my papers, a number of the essential
18 employees at Pharaoh's are members of the Outlaws Motorcycle
19 Club, who we deem to be a criminal organization.

20 And in my papers, I think you could see from a perusal
21 of that, those people have already, in our view, committed a 22 federal crime potentially by either lying to federal agents or 23 committing perjury to this Court, where they apparently totally 24 contradicted an interview with agents with respect to their 25 ability to do the banking activity at Pharaoh's without

1 Mr. Gerace.

2 Mr. Ermin is the manager. He's the international
3 president of the Outlaws and he says in the papers the defense
4 submitted that he can't do the banking. I'm paraphrasing.

5 And unbeknownst to the defense probably, he gave an 6 interview the day of the search warrant at Pharaoh's to federal 7 law enforcement where he explained he does the banking
8 25 percent of the time because Mr. Gerace is out of town.

9 So there is an example you could point to right in the 10 face of the papers here of people he worked with bending the 11 rules, at a minimum, to his benefit.

12 And I don't think that it's necessarily reasonable for 13 probation to have to go to Pharaoh's to monitor Mr. Gerace when 14 we can assure he's at his house and more easy to monitor there.

15 And there is -- experience and logic probably dictate
16 there's less likelihood that people who would be willing to 17 commit crimes, in the context of Pharaoh's Gentlemen's Club, 18 would risk going to Mr. Gerace's house with the risk of 19 probation showing up there. So I think that that's the risk.

20 THE COURT: Yeah, you know, I was going to follow up 21 with that and right at the very end, you kind of got me and 22 brought up that point.

23 You know, if he's going to do something at Pharaoh's,
24 why doesn't he do it at his house? And you're saying that 25 people are less likely to go to his house because probation can

1 come to Pharaoh's and keep an eye on him there.

2 MR. TRIPI: I understand that, Judge. It goes back
3 to, I guess, my first sentence, where there is a will, there is 4 a way, sort of undermines my argument a little bit.

5 But I think when you're talking about mitigating risk
6 and assessing dangerousness, it's playing the percentages a bit,
7 and I -- a lot of the -- although there is some conduct that he 8 engaged in at his home, the bulk of the conduct in this very 9 serious indictment occurred at Pharaoh's.

10 THE COURT: Has there been any indication that 11 Mr. Gerace has participated in illegal conduct at Pharaoh's
12 since his arrest on March -- well, it hasn't been anything since 13 March 1. Any illegal conduct at all since March 1?

14 MR. TRIPI: Not that I'm aware of through probation
15 notifying us of anything, no.

16 THE COURT: What about obstruction? He was aware of 17 this investigation in December of 2019?

18 MR. TRIPI: Correct.

19 THE COURT: At that point in time, any evidence, any 20 indication of obstruction or tampering since then?

21 MR. TRIPI: We have recently, relatively recently,
22 obtained search warrants for his Facebook account. There has 23 been a witness that received threats through a Facebook account
24 during a scenario where Mr. Gerace was present with the person
25 who was -- we're still investigating it. So I don't want to go

1 too far into it.

2 But essentially, Mr. Gerace was with a person who was
3 Facebook messaging a witness, essentially calling the witness a
4 snitch and things of that nature, which was perceived as a
5 threat by the witness.

6 THE COURT: Can you give me a date on that? When did
7 that allegedly occur?

8 MR. TRIPI: If I may consult with Mr. Cullinane.

9 THE COURT: Sure.

10 MR. TRIPI: That occurred, I'm correct, that that 11 occurred in or about November of 2019, which would have been 12 maybe about a month before the search warrant.

13 But the other thing I would point to, Judge, and I
14 referenced in a footnote, is that Mr. Gerace has sued two people
15 in State Court that he believes to be witnesses.

16 Now, obviously, there are statutes relating to 17 retaliation, relating to the filing of civil suits against 18 potential witnesses as a means of circumventing federal 19 discovery laws, as this case was in the Grand Jury at the time.

20 We obtained court orders from Judge Arcara to stay
21 those, enjoin those state cases. But I would point to, there is 22 another indication of Mr. Gerace trying to out witnesses.

23 I mean, what happens when you do that, you out
24 witnesses publically, it creates an environment ripe for other 25 people who you may be associated with criminally to --

1           It creates opportunities for intimidation and public
2   pressure of witnesses who shouldn't be exposed until trial. So
3   he's already started down that path, in our view, at least.

4           THE COURT: Can't I create a window of opportunity
5   every morning, 7:30 to 10:30, something like that, and impose
6   conditions that he's by himself in that building? Doesn't that 7   satisfy your concerns, Mr. Tripi?

8           MR. TRIPI: I think -- I don't -- it doesn't satisfy
9   my concerns, Judge. You certainly have the authority to do so,
10   but it does not, on the whole, satisfy my concerns.

11          THE COURT: Let me talk about the statement in your 12   papers that Mr. Gerace said he hadn't had cocaine in a year and 13   a half, but, in fact, tested positive. Tell me about that and 14   tell me about how that bears on this issue.

15          MR. TRIPI: Well, anything that is going to be 16   proffered to you on his behalf, counsel's relying on 17   representations from their client.

18          And you have a recent example that is consistent with 19   his prior federal conviction for defrauding the -- conspiracy to 20   defraud the United States.

21          You have a recent example where probation, the day of 22   his arrest, asks him about drug usage. He admits to using 23   pills, but doesn't acknowledge that he used cocaine.

24          And then after the appearance in Florida, we find out
25   he testified positive for cocaine, indicating that he lied to

1 the probation officer.

2 So he's an unreliable reporter of information to you
3 and I think that's borne out by the fact that he -- or 4 corroborated by the fact that he got employees of his to submit 5 affidavits that we believe are demonstrably false.

6 So you're relying on his representations through 7 counsel, obviously. Counsel is only as good as the 8 representations from the client and we don't think that the 9 Court should find Mr. Gerace to be a credible reporter to this 10 Court.

11 THE COURT: And I think you may have been referring to 12 the prior federal case in front of Judge Skretny.

13 There was also something in your papers about, I don't 14 know if it was a violation of supervised release or just some 15 miscommunication or misrepresentation to probation about his 16 place of employment. What's going on there.

17 MR. TRIPI: He was representing that he worked at his 18 family's restaurant on Transit while maintaining employment at 19 Pharaoh's.

20 So they essentially did a probation search of 21 Pharaoh's Gentlemen's Club on October 31st, 2009. Based upon 22 information probation received from witnesses that he was 23 selling cocaine there.

24 That's attached to my papers as Exhibit D. The 25 dancers were the reporters of information at that time,

1 indicated that Gerace not only ran the club, but he was
2 distributing cocaine from that location.

3 Obviously, that's also consistent with this
4 indictment. You have a lengthy stretch of time going back many,
5 many years now, where this conduct is alleged.

6 THE COURT: Was there a violation in that case that 7 was adjudicated?

8 MR. TRIPI: Yes. It was resolved, I think, by a
9 modification, Judge, but it was in that case, Mr. Bongiovanni, 10 the co-defendant, tied into.

11 Because he had nothing to do with the search and these 12 are laid out somewhat in the -- some of the overt acts of this 13 indictment.

14 Mr. Bongiovanni had nothing to do with that search,
15 but he generated a false report within the DEA system,
16 indicating that Peter Gerace was a confidential source, that he 17 wanted to cooperate.

18 And Bongiovanni reached out to probation in an effort
19 to say, he's going to cooperate and, you know, if you give him
20 essentially a break on this violation.

21 Around that same time, an FBI agent is conducting 22 independent investigation and looking to bring a case against 23 Gerace related to Pharaoh's. So over a decade ago.

24 But what happens in that scenario is when you have 25 someone who is a confidential source for one federal agency

1 being investigated by another, well, it reverts back to the 2 agency who is not controlling their source.

3 So Bongiovanni represents that Gerace is my source to 4 probation and to the FBI. The FBI essentially drops their 5 investigation of Gerace and then nothing happens.

6 Then that's laid out in the indictment in some of the 7 overt acts, if you follow chronologically, October 31st,
8 November 2nd, November 4th.

9 And Bongiovanni, who had nothing to do with this 10 probation search, is calling probation on his behalf. And 11 that's another part of it here, Judge.

12 He's charged with bribing a federal agent. He's got a
13 lot of contacts in law enforcement. He's got a lot of contacts
14 in the criminal world.

15 And every opportunity that he has where he's not being 16 monitored, or not in jail, frankly, is an opportunity to violate
17 any conditions that this Court sets.

18 THE COURT: All right. And before I ask Mr. Daniels a
19 couple of questions, you know, I'm thinking about it and, you
20 know, the Government hasn't asked for detention here and there
21 hasn't been a proffer heading in that direction.

22 And I, you know, I understand that this is pretrial
23 and he's presumed innocent and I don't really particularly like 24 it when people tell me that because I know that it is.

25 MR. TRIPI: Right.

1           THE COURT: But I've got to keep that in mind, too.
2 And if you want to put everything forward and ask for detention,
3 then that's a whole different set of proffers from you.

4           And maybe that's not the amount of detail you prefer
5 to give to the defense right now. So I'm within this constraint
6 of talking about the condition, right?

7           MR. TRIPI: Right.

8           THE COURT: Just the condition, I think. So let me
9 keep going and I'll come back to you, Mr. Tripi.

10           Mr. Daniels, do you want to say something about the 11 cocaine use first and then we will go to the next few questions?

12           MR. DANIELS: Yes, Judge. He was in Florida on 13 vacation and had been with some individuals and apparently, he 14 did test positive for it.

15           And might have been some confusion at the time. I'm 16 not certain, but I'm not challenging that, Judge. That 17 apparently, did occur here and he should have been, had he 18 known, he should have been more candid with probation.

19           We're not trying to hide from that. We're not trying 20 to duck that. But he's been 100 percent clean since he's been 21 back here, Judge.

22           No alcohol, no substances. He's following all the 23 rules. He's been compliant 100 percent. Mr. Macaluso is here.
24 He can confirm that with the Court.

25           THE COURT: In your papers, Mr. Daniels, you set forth

1 a number of things that Mr. Gerace does or needs to do or ought
2 to do to run the business on a day-to-day basis. How has the 3 business been running since he's been arrested on May 1?

4 MR. DANIELS: It's running well, Judge. It's a very 5 popular destination for individuals and patrons. They're quite 6 busy there and it's a very successful gentlemen's club, as we 7 say.

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MR. DANIELS: But he's worked there for a number of 10 years. His mother owned it in 2005. He bought it in 2014 and,
11 you know, in the bar and restaurant business, there's an old
12 saying that nobody counts the money better than the owner.

13 And it's a very, very heavy cash business. I could 14 say to the Court that from what we understand, 80 percent of 15 that business is cash.

16 And routinely in the mornings, when he's available,
17 when he's in town or didn't have a commitment to his son with 18 whom he has -- for whom he has custody, he would be there.

19 And he would count the receipts from the night before
20 which sometimes on weekends, are quite heavy, substantial. He 21 would make all the deposits, he would balance the checkbooks, he 22 would pay all the bills, he would do all the ordering.

23 That's what he's been doing for years, Judge. While 24 he's been at home, he has someone else do that for him and he's 25 on the phone with them and back and forth.

1           But I think he would feel a lot more secure if he were
2     able to do that himself. It's a job that he has done for years
3     and years.

4           Mr. Tripi made mention of a gentleman who has been 5     doing some work there for him. His name is John Ermin and 6     Mr. Ermin has worked for Mr. Gerace for six or seven years.

7           He's the day manager and he explained to an agent,
8     maybe a year and a half ago, that when Mr. Gerace would be 9     unavailable, he would do the banking and handle all the cash.

10          I spoke -- I have spoken to Mr. Ermin. He's a very 11     nice guy and he told me that he just isn't comfortable with that 12     responsibility of handling all the cash and making sure
13     everything is right.

14          Because as we say, no one does it better than the 15     owner. Mr. Ermin, who is referred to as Tommy O., was a member, 16     I believe, of Outlaws Motorcycle Club, as Mr. Tripi has 17     mentioned.

18          He rode a Harley motorcycle for some years and I think
19     it -- he was involved in an accident some years ago, too, and it 20     cost him one of his legs. I believe his left leg, above his 21     knee, was amputated.

22          But he does his best. He's dependable. We're not 23     saying he's not, but it's just very difficult for Mr. Gerace not 24     to do this work himself and the ordering, too, of ordering all 25     the food and the liquor. He has his own system for doing that.

1           And all we're asking the Court is to allow him to go
2     there a few hours in the morning from 7:30 to 10:30 or 8:00 to
3     11:00 under any circumstances or conditions that this Court
4     would approve and just do the work and the routine that he has 5     done for years and years, Judge.

6           THE COURT: I know that this isn't the test. It might 7     be coming at it from the other direction, but is there any duty
8     that only Mr. Gerace can fulfill on a day-to-day basis or 9     week-to-week basis?

10          MR. DANIELS: Well, he's been doing it by himself for 11     years and years. It's the old story, when you have to depend on 12     others, you are always concerned and sometimes it doesn't work
13     right and there is a lot of questions that go back and forth.

14          It's just something that he feels responsible for. He 15     feels confident in doing and, as we say, Judge, it's a -- it's a 16     very substantial cash business.

17          And he feels that that's something he should be 18     responsible for himself in making sure everything is handled the 19     right way.

20          THE COURT: If we created this window that I've been 21     suggesting, maybe 7:30 to 10:30, is Mr. Gerace capable of 22     keeping other people out of the building?

23          In other words, deliveries, beer, liquor, food, the 24     person who is going to mop and sweep, vacuum. Is he going to be 25     able to create an environment where he's all by himself in

1 there? Because if he is allowed to do this and we have other
2 people coming and going then the party is over, right?

3 MR. DANIELS: Judge, we would make every effort to 4 comply with any condition that this Court believes is 5 reasonable.

6 Maybe 8:00 to 11:00 might be a little easier for us
7 than 7:30 to 10:30, but if the Court insists on 7:30 to 10:30, 8 we will do that.

9 We would see to it that we would not be in contact
10 with anyone. The business doesn't open until 12 o'clock. No
11 one comes in until noon. And I'm sure we could make 12 arrangements that we would be able to handle that ourselves.

13 THE COURT: But I've got something. I thought I saw
14 Ermin's declaration indicating that he comes in at 11:00. So I
15 mean, that's part of it. If I'm going to do this, I have got to 16 avoid overlap.

17 MR. DANIELS: We will see that Mr. Gerace would be 18 there without the presence of Mr. Ermin, Judge.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Daniels, would you comment for me on 20 Mr. Tripi's argument about the credibility of the presentation
21 that Ermin's declaration contradicting what he has told the FBI.

22 MR. DANIELS: Judge, there might have been some 23 measure of confusion there, Judge. Mr. Ermin, from what he has
24 told me, would handle the money and the deposits when Mr. Gerace
25 would not be available.

1           There may be several reasons for that. Mr. Gerace may
2 have been on vacation. He takes frequent vacations. Number
3 two, he may have a commitment to his son in the morning.

4           He may be unavailable for other reasons in the morning
5 which would cause Mr. Ermin to take care of the banking, but 6 it's for a limited period of time, Judge.

7           Mr. Ermin is aware that that is Mr. Gerace's
8 responsibility and routinely, he almost always handled that and 9 as Mr. Ermin had said to me when I met with him, that there is a 10 lot of cash that comes into Pharaoh's from all the patrons.

11           And he just doesn't feel comfortable with the 12 responsibility of handling all that cash and he would prefer
13 that Mr. Gerace do that himself.

14           THE COURT: Mr. Tripi, in my view, and maybe I'm going 15 to be proved wrong. Maybe I won't. But in my view, allowing 16 this to happen for a window of time in the morning with 17 conditions that nobody else is there and including my clear
18 unwillingness to tolerate a violation of these conditions, isn't 19 it likely that anybody under these circumstances would comply?

20           This is their window to make it happen and if
21 Mr. Macaluso is checking in or any other governmental agency
22 wants to take a look and see what's going on, isn't there a high
23 likelihood of compliance here?

24           MR. TRIPI: Judge, one would think so, but we've been 25 more than surprised before and I think that, you know,

1 obviously, the only place that we would ever be sure would be in 2 a detention situation.

3 I understand that's not this. I just think the next
4 safest thing is what we requested, which is, he is locked down,
5 confined to his home.

6 But I understand the premise of your question, Judge,
7 but given this defendant's track record, both prior to this
8 indictment and as alleged in this indictment, I would answer,
9 no.

10 I don't think we -- I don't think -- maybe anyone who 11 wasn't a felon, who has recently lied to probation and who is 12 alleged to have commit these. If we're talking about someone 13 else, then sure, but not him.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Macaluso, you have been listening in.
15 Do you have anything to add at this point, while I'm still 16 considering the issue?

17 MR. MACALUSO: No, Your Honor. The defendant has been 18 compliant to date with his conditions. No alcohol condition.
19 He removed all the alcohol from his residence.

20 He is on active GPS. We would be able to track him,
21 where he's going, how long he is at the workplace and then I can 22 also pop in to make sure that he is alone on those hours if you
23 do set them. But we would have no objection to him going to 24 work for a few hours in the morning.

25 THE COURT: Under the statute, which is

1 18 U.S.C. 3145(a), I must independently determine if the 2 amendment that's requested is consistent with 3142(c)(1).

3 In other words, I must determine whether the 4 conditions imposed are the least restrictive combination of 5 conditions that will reasonably assure the appearance of the 6 person, as required in the safety of any other person in the 7 community.

8 And I've been thinking a lot about this and it's 9 certainly not an easy question and certainly not easy if you are 10 trying to get it just right.

11 As I mentioned earlier, I spent a lot of time
12 pondering this, including now on the bench. In deciding the 13 motion, I must balance the Government's concerns about safety of 14 others in the community with Mr. Gerace's concerns about 15 operating a lawful business.

16 And I must ensure that I comply with the statute and 17 impose the least restrictive conditions necessary to guard
18 against danger to others in the community, without imposing
19 conditions that border or can be perceived as punitive in a
20 pretrial context.

21 My analysis is -- I'm attempting to drive the analysis
22 this way by the statute and not look solely at, which I think is 23 something in the reverse.

24 Looking solely at what it is that Mr. Gerace
25 absolutely must do to keep his business running because I think

1 that's backwards under the statute.

2 So I'm trying to use that as a relevant consideration
3 but to stay within the confines of the statute which is to 4 impose the conditions that are the least restrictive under the 5 circumstances.

6 I've considered the factors and the statute, including 7 all subsections, and including the nature and circumstances of 8 the offenses charged, the weight of the evidence proffered to 9 date, his history and characteristics and the danger to others
10 in the community.

11 And my analysis of the factors is based, as well, on 12 the transcripts. I read the transcript out of Florida and the 13 transcript in front of Judge Roemer.

14 And I read the pretrial services memorandum dated
15 March 4, 2021, and I also read the second superseding
16 indictment.

17 After considering all of this, I find that the 18 combination of conditions previously imposed is not the least 19 restrictive combination of conditions to reasonably assure the 20 safety of others in the community.

21 And in particular, I find that the condition that 22 Mr. Gerace stay away from Pharaoh's Gentlemen's Club at 999 Aero
23 Drive, Cheektowaga, is more restrictive than necessary, as 24 stated, to reasonably assure the safety of others and the 25 community.

1 Under these facts, the lesser restrictive condition
2 that he refrain from visiting or working at Pharaoh's, except 3 between certain designated hours serves the purpose of 4 Title 18 3142(c) (1) (B) .

5 I therefore grant the motion in part and amend the 6 conditions of his release as follows:

7 The parameters of the home detention condition are 8 modified to allow Mr. Gerace to leave his residence for 9 employment at Pharaoh's between 7:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. each
10 day.

11 The condition that he stay away from Pharaoh's is 12 modified to state that he shall not visit Pharaoh's, except 13 between those hours, 7:30 to 10:30 a.m., each day.

14 On days that he is there working at Pharaoh's, he is 15 to proceed directly from his residence to Pharaoh's and is to 16 return directly to his residence. If he needs to make any stops
17 along the way, he can work with Mr. Macaluso on that and get 18 those pre-approved.

19 When he's working at Pharaoh's, Mr. Gerace must be 20 alone. He must not meet with or encounter any other employees
21 of Pharaoh's.

22 He must not accept any deliveries of any kind and must 23 not interact with any other person. He shall arrange employee
24 and delivery schedules to comply with this condition.

25 One additional condition that I wanted to get some

1 input from counsel on is this. My, you know, what I'm doing
2 here is I've got to try to imagine a way to make this work, a
3 way that's fair.

4 And one of the things that occurs to me is the concern
5 he's already got conditions that he's not to tamper with 6 witnesses or obstruct justice, those sorts of things.

7 But is there a concern about current employees there,
8 that he might tend to communicate with current employees there
9 in a way that's, you know, leaving notes at their lockers. I
10 don't know what the situation is. Do I need to worry about 11 something like that, Mr. Tripi?

12 MR. TRIPI: That is certainly going to be a challenge.
13 There is a locker room where there is dancers. There is office
14 space. There is area behind the bar.

15 So, Judge, I don't know how, quite frankly, I don't 16 know how we would mitigate against leaving notes and things like 17 that. But yes, there are certain areas and plenty of places to 18 leave notes or instructions.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Daniels, do you have a comment about 20 that subtopic?

21 MR. DANIELS: Just two things, Judge. I understand
22 the Court has directed that Mr. Gerace be there alone from 7:30
23 to 10:30.

24 He tells me that there is a cleaning lady that comes 25 in from 9:00 to 12:00 and she sprays COVID protection,

1 anti-COVID sprays around the premises and generally cleans up.

2 If the Court insists, we will tell her to come at 3 another time. But I just bring that to the Court's attention.
4 Maybe the Court would allow that lady to be there at that time
5 to clean up. They open at noon. So that's why they wanted to 6 have all that done before noon.

7 Secondly, Mr. Gerace certainly understands all the 8 conditions. He's not to have contact with witnesses or 9 co-conspirators.

10 We're not sure who a lot of those people are but as 11 far as employees go or goes, he does have phone contact with 12 them during the day or in the evening. It might be a phone call 13 where they ask him some things. He does speak to them. But 14 that's just routine business, Judge.

15 We understand the parameters here. We understand what 16 we're supposed to do, what we're not supposed to do, and we 17 continue to comply and we will comply. Thank you.

18 MR. TRIPI: Judge, the only thing I would add to that 19 is he's the owner of the building. He could modify his opening
20 and start time if he needed to, to also comply with the Court's 21 time parameters, so.

22 THE COURT: Do you have a particular concern about 23 overlap between Mr. Gerace and the cleaning lady?

24 MR. TRIPI: Don't know who the cleaning lady is,
25 offhand. We provided interviews from several Pharaoh's

1 employees.

2 The cleaning lady, I believe to be at one point, was
3 John Ermin's wife. So if it's still that same person, then now
4 you know who it is.

5 MR. DANIELS: May I just have a moment?

6 THE COURT: Yeah, sure.

7 MR. DANIELS: Thank you.

8 (Discussion off the record.)

9 MR. DANIELS: The cleaning lady, her name is Jennifer.
10 I'm not sure of her last name. She's been there for a long
11 time. That's her job. Gets there early in the morning and -- 12 excuse me.

13 What time does she leave?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Noon or 1:00.

15 MR. DANIELS: She leaves at noon or 1:00, depending on 16 deliveries and she cleans the place.

17 THE COURT: I'm not hearing from the Government that 18 it was particularly concerned about this Jennifer, if she is a
19 witness or something else in your case. Mr. Tripi, you don't 20 believe that to be the case, do you?

21 MR. TRIPI: I would ask that she be fully identified
22 and if we need to follow up with her directly at some point, we 23 could.

24 I'm not saying she needs to be identified on the 25 record but at least to probation, have her fully identified and

1 we can give it a shot, go from there.

2 THE COURT: Is that acceptable?

3 MR. DANIELS: Certainly, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: In terms of identification to 5 Mr. Macaluso?

6 MR. DANIELS: Certainly. We will call Mr. Macaluso.
7 We will give him all the information.

8 THE COURT: If there is a particular concern about how 9 she relates to this lawsuit with this criminal case, then we can 10 worry about that next, okay?

11 MR. DANIELS: We will take care of that, Judge.

12 THE COURT: All right. I am going to impose this 13 additional condition with one exception. So this is for 14 Mr. Macaluso can get it clearly and everyone can pay attention.

15 So no communicating with employees while you are 16 there, Mr. Gerace, in writing, notes, that sort of thing. And 17 I'm going to give you exceptions.

18 Your managers, if you need to leave them a checklist,
19 fine, but I don't want you communicating with any of the other
20 employees by leaving notes for them during the day, okay? I
21 think that's probably sufficiently stated, Mr. Macaluso. So you
22 can write it up, okay?

23 MR. MACALUSO: All right.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Gerace, if you have any doubt or 25 question about whether a certain task, I've tried to carve this

1 up and thread the needle carefully.

2 So if you are in doubt about any of this, speak with
3 Mr. Macaluso first. I really would rather not have a situation
4 where you're coming in and telling me you made a mistake and 5 didn't think about it.

6 I'd rather you think about it first and vet it with 7 Mr. Macaluso, so that we're not back here talking about whether 8 you violated something.

9 Do you understand that?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Also, if you violate any of the conditions
12 I just described, and that will be set forth in the written 13 order, a warrant may issued for your arrest and you may be 14 detained for the entirety of your case, pending trial.

15 If, while on this release, you violate 18 U.S.C. 1503,
16 intimidation of witnesses, jurors, and officers of the Court;
17 1510, which is obstruction of criminal investigation; 1512,
18 tampering with a witness, victim, or informant; 1513,
19 retaliating against the witness, victim, or informant, you may 20 be charged with a separate offense for that conduct.

21 Do you understand that?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Macaluso, do you have anything to add
24 or comments on the conditions that I've stated?

25 MR. MACALUSO: Just a question, Your Honor. It's 7:30

1 to 10:30 daily, correct?

2 THE COURT: Correct.

3 MR. MACALUSO: Okay. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: And you will be typing this up --

5 MR. MACALUSO: Yes.

6 THE COURT: -- or making it?

7 MR. MACALUSO: Yes. I can send up so ordered.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Yeah. It doesn't need to be typed.
9 Sometimes they're handwritten. So either way, you will be 10 preparing it and I'll sign it?

11 MR. MACALUSO: Yes.

12 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Gerace remains released, 13 pending trial on the conditions I just explained, pursuant to 14 18 U.S.C. 3142(b) and (c).

15 The transcript of my oral ruling shall constitute my 16 written findings and decision on Mr. Gerace's motion.

17 Counsel, do you have anything? I have nothing
18 further. Do either of you?

19 MR. TRIPI: No, Your Honor.

20 MR. DANIELS: No, Judge.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Very good. Thank you.
